

World War II Boxes

As a Military collector, and as a lister of Military issues, I can tell you that one doesn't see World War II boxes very often, but here are four nice ones. The Douglas MacArthur 'I Shall Return' box (only top panel shown) is the most famous of such boxes (courtesy of Terry Rowe, OH). The other three boxes seen here, more for domestic use, show some of the patriotic slogans of the times (both panels shown for each). (Thanks to Ron Nelson, NE, for these).
