

Literary Characters

by Mike Prero

This is one of my own categories, especially since I've taught Literature for years and years. I like to see all those characters right there on the very matchcovers that comprise my hobby. I extend the category to include Literary places (such as Shangra-La) and Literary objects (such as Excalibur). It's all one and the same to me. It's kind of a whimsical topic, and that just adds to its allure.

Currently, I have some 600 such covers...and I'm always looking!
