

Legs!

Legs! We've all got 'em, but collectors want more of 'em!

Even if you don't happen to have a leg fetish, this can still be a very appealing category, especially if the cover is nicely done, such as the 30-strike shown here to the left.

I don't have any stats on largest collection, but there are probably more than you might imagine. I would guess it's a pretty small category, though. I don't see many, and I go through lots of covers.

Hosiery companies would obviously be the largest source of these covers.

...Notice the distinct absence of men's legs...hmmmmmm!
