Chinese Restaurants... alá Lion Safety First

Yea, we all know about the famous Crown Chinese Restaurant covers and their incredible and, thus, much admired and sought after art work.

But, these are Lion Safety First Chinese Restaurant covers! What do you mean you don't see the similarity?!...Well, OK. Other than that they're both Chinese Restaurant covers, they're not very similar. So...?

Hmmmm..how about the very attractive fact that they're a decade earlier than those pesky Crown covers! These were issued from 1919-1928. Some may not appreciate that [they're undoubtedly the people who stand around and "ohh" and "ahh" in modern art museums, whereas I and my ilk are the ones who seek out dusty tomes and long forgotten tombs.] You can make up your own mind as to which camp you reside in.
