

The 1958/1959 Remington "60" Brazilian Soccer Set

This is a nice one for Sports collectors! It's a foreign set (Brazilian) made by Universal. The manumark reads: IND. BRASILEIRA - UNIVERSAL - AV. IBIRAPUERA, 3,068 S. P. It's made up of 25 20-strikes, one for each member of the 1958 World Champion Brazilian soccer team. The front panels are all the same, with an advertisement for the Remington "60" shaver. The back panel of each cover features a black & white photo of a specific team member, with name, logo, and "CAMPEAO do MUNDO 1958." The insides are blank, and, obviously, these are front-strikers.

This is a great Sports set to have under any circumstance; it's uncommon (I hesitate to say "rare," because I really don't know how many sets were originally produced, or how many actually exist today); it's very difficult to obtain; it's just about 60 years old; and it's hardly known within the hobby. But, the outstanding feature, here, is the cover for the legendary and world famous soccer star, Pele. What Babe Ruth is to baseball, Pele is to soccer. That, in itself, would be enough to make most collectors covet this set.

Well, now that I've tantalized you with this knowledge, how do you get a set?.....advertise.....and pray!
