

New Displays!

Those dazzling, eye-catching displays are always one of the highlights to be seen at conventions, but they're not just for fellow collectors to peruse...they're a very effective way to promote the hobby. "Pictures are worth a thousand words" they say, and it's true. Displays capture attention and draw the unknowing into a hitherto unknown world, such as Dave Rutan's new displays below and Loren Moore's upcoming gallery showing at Blue Line Arts Gallery at 405 Vernon St., Roseville, CA, June 20th - July 4th.

If you've made new displays, share them with the rest of the hobby by sending .jpg scans to the Ed., and I'll do my best to get them in the bulletins.

Dave Rutan, WA: These and 13 other displays are headed to America's Largest Antique Show in late October for a public awareness campaign of mine about matchcover collecting and the artwork on old covers.
