

KNOW YOUR COVERS!

Matchtone was a Universal trademark for its very attractive covers which featured a top flap with a different color and surface from the rest of the cover. Most were also Uniglos. They were issued from 1979-1987 and are collected as a category in and of themselves.

Tom Gray, IA, had 710 as of January 2016. The list, like so many others, is currently dormant for lack of listers.

