Douglas

Douglas! What is it? I'm not really sure! Was it a manufacturer? Was it a printing company? Was it a novelty company? The covers, as shown here, simply say "Douglas". Whatever it was, it was short-lived.

Some of the covers are WW II Patriotic covers, so the company was operating in the early 1940s.

These are definitely not high quality covers and are basically of interest because of the scarcity of issues. Only 58 currently covers are currently listed.

Interestingly, of the 58 covers I've seen, only one (and I'm not sure about that one) advertises a business (X-O Dude Ranch).
