Minimax

The Hilton category can boast of lots of exotic locations, over 3,500 covers, and certainly name recognition, but the real gems of the category are the Minimax covers. They're not particularly attractive, but they're that little oddity that sparks the interest in many such categories.

These were early Hilton covers, mainly back in the 1930s; each carries a Minimax logo; they were issued from 1930-1944.

There aren't very many varieties, but, then, that just adds to the attraction. Jim Moffett's, CA, collection numbered 22 as of 10/89.
