

KNOW YOUR COVERS!

Nationals

Yuk! Nationals! You know! Those covers nobody wants! They're covers from chain businesses or advertising national products, store sets, etc. with no specific location (i.e., stock Holiday Inn cover with no address, etc.).

Actually, we all collect Nationals to some degree, and, in fact, there are whole categories that are virtually all Nationals! This would include most of the Transportation categories, for example—Airlines, Railroads, Ship Lines. Plus, some Nationals are collected to complete other categories (i.e., that national Holiday Inn cover could go into your Holiday Inn collection to represent that type, etc.) And, if you collect something like Bears, it doesn't matter if there's no address. You're interested in the bear!
