

Around The World

2005 INDIAN BOX SETS

Here are two high-quality box sets from India. Thanks to Krishna Bappaditya Maji, India, for these nice Swords Set and Handguns Set

Rastogi and these nice Swords Set

1. The Excalibur
2. The Cutlass
3. The Rapier
4. The Saber
5. The Curtana

Handguns Set

1. Colt Peacemaker
2. Mauser M1896
3. Browning Hi-Power
4. Luger
5. Smith & Wesson Model 3

Did you know? The Curtana This 17th century sword is the original sword of Oglethorpe. It is still used in the State of Georgia to this day. The pattern sword carried below English monarchs as their coronation sword is historically considered the sword of Henry. Marketed by ITC LTD., 37, J.L. Nehru Rd, Kolkata 700 071.	 35 safety matches Carbonised matches
Did you know? The Rapier Used for fencing in Europe, this sword was sometimes used as a left-handed dagger for added effectiveness. For defence, the sword was designed with various branches to protect different parts of the hand, making it the perfect sword for offence and defence. Marketed by ITC LTD., 37, J.L. Nehru Rd, Kolkata 700 071.	 35 safety matches Carbonised matches
Did you know? The Saber This was favoured by Chinese cavalry and foot soldiers because of its short and broad blade. These capabilities were a result of its sharp point and a tip that was slightly weighted over to a single fine edge, thus making it particularly useful in combat. Marketed by ITC LTD., 37, J.L. Nehru Rd, Kolkata 700 071.	 35 safety matches Carbonised matches
Did you know? The Cutlass This term came from "cutthroat" or "hugger" because it was a short, broad-bladed cutting sword. This design became a favorite among pirates during the 17th century because it worked well in close quarters and longer swords that became entangled in the rigging. Marketed by ITC LTD., 37, J.L. Nehru Rd, Kolkata 700 071.	 35 safety matches Carbonised matches
Did you know? The Excalibur This was the legendary sword of King Arthur. With it in hand he conquered the Knights of the Round Table and ridged over Camelot. The sword's legendary strength began his overcome all his enemies in his quest for the Holy Grail. Marketed by ITC LTD., 37, J.L. Nehru Rd, Kolkata 700 071.	 35 safety matches Carbonised matches

35 safety matches Carbonised matches  35 safety matches Carbonised matches	35 safety matches Carbonised matches  35 safety matches Carbonised matches
Did you know? Mauser M1896 The Mauser rifle was nicknamed the "Bitch" in the USA because of its gas leak. In Germany it had a nickname "Kriegs Mauser". It was widely used in public and military arm to arm Europe in World War I. It was later called "Kriegs Mauser". Marketed by ITC LTD., 37, J.L. Nehru Rd, Kolkata 700 071.	Did you know? Luger The Luger (aka "Penetration") was developed by Georg Luger in Germany in 1898. The Penetration name comes from an event (Luger's "30" M) where he was able to penetrate a target with his bullet. It was adopted by the Army in 1906. Marketed by ITC LTD., 37, J.L. Nehru Rd, Kolkata 700 071.
35 safety matches Carbonised matches  35 safety matches Carbonised matches	35 safety matches Carbonised matches  35 safety matches Carbonised matches
Did you know? Browning Hi-Power Considered by many to be an improvement on the Colt Peacemaker, the Browning Hi-Power was introduced in 1927 for the US Army and Peacemaker in the most famous revolver ever made. It was widely used during the 1930s and 1940s. It was widely used in public and military arm to arm Europe in World War I. It was later called "Kriegs Mauser". Marketed by ITC LTD., 37, J.L. Nehru Rd, Kolkata 700 071.	Did you know? Colt Peacemaker Introduced in 1877 for the US Army and Peacemaker in the most famous revolver ever made. It was widely used during the 1930s and 1940s. It was widely used in public and military arm to arm Europe in World War I. It was later called "Kriegs Mauser". Marketed by ITC LTD., 37, J.L. Nehru Rd, Kolkata 700 071.