2007 Netherlands Boxes

Here's a recent set of boxes from the Netherlands, issued by Aldi Netherlands. This is a grocery store set. Very attractive.

If you're into Sets and Series, it seems to me that that's the major category that foreign material has to offer, much more common and available than even foreign Tobacco covers.

Portugal has long been known as a source for many sets (and some really large ones!), but all the foreign manufacturers issue sets, as they have always been very popular with customers. You have to be into boxes, though, and be willing to deal with various sizes. It's not like dealing with American Aces or Diamond Pocketboxes, where you only deal with one uniform-size.

For foreign collector contacts, there are plenty on the Collector On-Line page of our web site. [Thanks to Hans Everink, Netherlands, for these]
