2009 Romanian Vegeta Set

For food aficionados and collectors, we have this colorful 2009 7-box set from Romania. Each shows what I assume to be a different food dish—Cartofi, Carne de Pork, Peste, etc. Vegeta, I assume again, is the product company.

Hans, our source, indicates that this particular set is a new, updated version of an earlier set. This one may show some new products, with possibly a few design changes in the design format as well.

[Thanks as always to our ever-diligent agent Hans Everink, Netherlands, for these. Hans regularly keeps us posted of new issues popping up in Europe.]
