2012/2013 Ukrainian World War II Set

Here's a fairly recent box set from the Ukraine. It's of special interest to me, as a Military collector, since the boxes apparently commemorate Russian/Ukrainian efforts during World War II. Each box shows a different black and white photo from the war.

Also note that each box is numbered. If the numbers are, in fact, designations of the boxes in one set, then this set numbers at least 77 issues, and that's an odd number, so I'd hazard a guess that the number is higher, perhaps 100 boxes in the set.

Hmmmmmm! I'd love to have the complete set on this one! A really nice set, indeed.

Many thanks to our European correspondent Hans Everink, Netherlands, for this.
