The Hellman Match Company

This was an old Los Angeles-based company [the mm above says Hollywood] that apparently produced very few covers, as only 16 are currently listed.

As with many of the 1930s covers, this company's covers were not of particularly good quality, although they're better printed and more attractive than some others of the time, notably Manhattan, Chicago, or Jersey, for example.

It either changed to, or was absorbed by, Crown Match Co. in 1934.
